Bechtel International Center Reception

Hillen at Stanford/Court House/Bail House

Hi!

Welcome to our international students and family members to join us at the Bechtel International Center. The world of international student vis a vis can be confusing. Bring your questions to our knowledgeable staff who can provide information about the visa process and share how we support international students during their time here on campus and beyond.

CIRCLE Open House

Archaeology Center Tour

Offered by the Archaeology Center. The tour is designed to give visitors a taste of the department’s work in the field and in the lab, and the role of archaeology in understanding human history and culture. The tour highlights the diversity of archaeological research carried out at the Archaeology Center and the ways in which our research contributes to understanding the world around us.

Families of Junior Students

Eichle Hall, Bechtel Conference Center

Moderator: Lara Rezek, Assistant Dean of Career Education and Academic Advising; Kelly Beck, Director of the Stanford Careers Center, Academic Advising.

Families of Senior Students

Queer Student Resources Reception @ QSpot

Queer Student Resources Reception @ QSpot

Have questions about queer life at Stanford? Come and listen to queer student panelists talk about their personal experience with the queerness at QSpot in the Fire Truck House. Please feel free to bring any questions you have about queer life on campus.

Home of Champions Tour

Possibly a special event occurring outside of the Arthritis Family Sports Center. Expect a high-flying, fast-paced environment featuring a full slate of activities.

The Women’s Community Center

The Women’s Community Center exists to facilitate growth and engagement for Stanford students around issues of gender, identity, and justice. Our approach is inclusive, intersectional, and welcoming of people of all identities. This open house is an opportunity for women, trans, and gender non-conforming students and their allies to come together to learn more about what we do, what we offer, and how we can support you and your friends.

El Centro Chicano y Latino Reception

Old Union, 3rd Floor, 524 Lasuen Mall

Join us for an open house and community gathering at our student center. “Come home away from home.” We’ll offer food and drinks and company, and share about the Native community at Stanford.

El Centro, Casa del Mural, and Bechtel Center for the Arts

Moderator: Lara Tohme, Paspa, Assistant Dean of Career Education and Associate Director of the Stanford Newcomer Guide Program, Academic Advising.

Saturday

All tours are available on a first-come, first-served basis beginning at 9:30 AM. Early arrival is encouraged.

Jasper Ridge Biological Preserve Tour

Tour FIDCO C2, Lathrop Library, Bishop Auditorium

For those who want to experience nature up close, our first stop is a visit to the 240-acre Jasper Ridge Biological Preserve. Our experienced guides will introduce you to the unique plant and animal life of this protected area, and you will have the opportunity to observe some of the fascinating creatures that call Jasper Ridge home. This tour is designed for families with children of all ages and is accessible to everyone, regardless of physical ability.

All tours are led by experienced guides who are knowledgeable about the local flora and fauna. Participants are encouraged to bring comfortable walking shoes, water bottles, and insect repellent. A light snack will be provided.

Tour tickets are limited to 45 people and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Tickets are required for all participants, including children.

For more information, visit the Back to School Tours website at familyweekend.stanford.edu.

Join us for a unique and educational experience that will allow you to appreciate the beauty and diversity of the natural world right here in Stanford University's own backyard!
